1. The first part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, explaining the purpose and scope of the review. The author states that the review is intended to provide a comprehensive overview of the current state of the field and to identify areas for further research. The letter is dated 1st January 2023.

2. The second part of the document is the main body of the review, which is divided into several sections. The first section is an introduction to the topic, followed by a discussion of the current state of the field. The author then discusses the methods used in the review and the results of the search. The final section is a conclusion and a list of references.

3. The third part of the document is a list of references, which includes a wide range of sources, including books, journal articles, and online resources. The references are listed in alphabetical order and are formatted according to the journal's guidelines.

4. The fourth part of the document is a list of acknowledgements, in which the author thanks the editor and several reviewers for their helpful comments and suggestions. The author also thanks the funding agency for their support of this work.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of appendices, which includes a list of abbreviations and a list of definitions. The appendices are intended to provide additional information and to clarify any potential ambiguities in the main text.

6. The sixth part of the document is a list of footnotes, which includes information about the author's contact details and the journal's submission guidelines. The footnotes are intended to provide additional information and to clarify any potential ambiguities in the main text.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of references, which includes a wide range of sources, including books, journal articles, and online resources. The references are listed in alphabetical order and are formatted according to the journal's guidelines.

8. The eighth part of the document is a list of acknowledgements, in which the author thanks the editor and several reviewers for their helpful comments and suggestions. The author also thanks the funding agency for their support of this work.
